

Agreement For Water Crystal Photography

I understand that the method of your water crystal photography is based on the Hado theory developed by late Dr. Masaru Emoto and is different from biochemical and physical property tests conducted by other institutions. I acknowledge that the copyright of the water crystal photographs that were taken by Office Masaru Emoto, LLC belong to Office Masaru Emoto, LLC and I am aware that any commercial use of the water crystal photographs or data will incur copyright royalties, and we need to make a license agreement for that. If I fail to comply with the above, or if your company's reputation or social credibility is damaged, I (our company) will assume all responsibility, including legal action. I will not make any objection to such decisions made by your company.
