Agreement for Water Crystal Photography

I understand that the water crystal photography method utilized by Office Masaru Emoto, LLC is based on the Hado theory developed by the late Dr. Masaru Emoto and differs from conventional biochemical or physical property testing methods conducted by other institutions.

I acknowledge that all copyrights relating to the water crystal photographs and reports produced by Office Masaru Emoto, LLC remain the exclusive property of Office Masaru Emoto, LLC.

I further understand that any commercial use, reproduction, publication, distribution, or licensing of such photographs, reports, or related materials requires the prior written permission of Office Masaru Emoto, LLC and may be subject to a separate licensing agreement and royalty payment.

I agree not to use the photographs, reports, or related materials in any manner that misrepresents their original content, context, or intended meaning, or that infringes the intellectual property rights of Office Masaru Emoto, LLC.

In the event of any unauthorized use or material breach of these terms, Office Masaru Emoto, LLC reserves the right to take appropriate legal and contractual action to protect its rights and reputation.
